Wessels, Caught in Northwest Gale, Are Struggling Toward Port.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., February 15.—Three revenue cutters, the Onondaga, Seminole and Pamilico, to-night are helping schooners in distress on the Atlantic Ocean and in Pamilico Sound.

The Onondaga picked up the four-masted schooner Mary E. Palmer fity miles south of Cape Henry, and is now endeavoring to tow her to this port. The Palmer encountered the severe northwest gale which swept the Virginia and Carolina coast last night and to-day. The Palmer lost most of her rigging, and is reported to have taken in some water. She carries a crew of ten.

A freezing northwest storm is sweeping the coast to-night, but the wind is moderating.

The revenue cutter Seminole, which went to the assistance of the schooner last night, sighted the vessel twenty-five miles southwest of Diamond Shoals Lightship, but at last reported to be leaking, but in no immediate danger.

The little schooner Lucretia, ashore off Middleton, in Pamileo Sound, was picked up by the revenue cutter Pamilico. Captalin Sewall and two men, composing her crew, were rescued. They spent several hours in the riggings, the Schooner having lost her rudder and was almost waterlogged. Struggling Toward Port.

Famous Indian School Is Subject of Serious Charges.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, February 15.—Following the suspension of Superintendent Friedman, the books of the Carlisle Indian School have been turned over to the Department of Justice for investigation. It is intimated that criminal prosecutions are likely to follow. Notable among the accounts which are said to be in confusion are those of the famous Carlisle Indian football eleven. It is alleged that receipts from the big games played by the eleven are missing, and the government officials

Flogging of Indian students, improper food, immoral conditions and incompetent management and teaching are some of the charges developed by an investigation conducted by Indian Inspector E. B. Linnen, and the joint commission on Indian affairs, headed by Senator Robinson, of Arkansas.

Abuses in connection with the "farming out" of Indian children have been uncovered, with the result that the practice will be abolished. In addition to bad food, it is charged that no knives and forks were allowed many of the children, who reverted to the aboriginal methods of eating.

Gross immorality, involving employes and female students, are alleged to have been found. It is charged that these laxities were generally known and overlooked by those whose duty it was to safeguard the inmates of the school.

South Bend, Ind., February 15., Eleven persons were probably seriously injured and nearly 100 others slightly hurt here to-day in a riot that resulted when twenty-five policemen attempted to aid Sheriff Edward Swanson in carrying out an order of Judge W. A. Funk that the Rev. Stanislaus Gruza be placed in charge of St. Casimler's Polish Roman Catholic Church. The mob comprised about 2,000 men and women, and after fighting two hours they successfully blocked the effort of Father Gruza to take possession of the church.

Father Gruza to take possession of the church.

Father Gruza was transferred to the parish a year ago, but the parishioners refused to accept him. Six hundred families in the parish then took charge of the church and barred the doors and windows, and petitioned the bishop to assign them another priest. This was refused, and the matter was taken into court, where Judge Funk ordered the sheriff to place Father Gruza in charge.

Early to-day the sheriff, a deputy and the priest drove to the church, but immediately were surrounded, and the police were called on for aid. Twenty-ive policemen were sent to the church and the doors broken open. The angry prishioners then charged the officers, and the battle was fought in the street.
